Something Unusual in a Blue Serge Suit

If you have seen the kind of Navy Blue Serge Suits usually offered at $15 you have probably made up your mind that a really first-class guaranteetl serge suit cannot be bought for anywhere near this price. If that's the case you haven't seen the P. B.

UNITY Guaranteed Blue Serge $15

Now we don't say that this serge is "worth $20, $22.50 or $25," because that would sound like the usual exaggerations that led you astray before; we merely ask you to kindly see these Unity Serges and judge for yourself. We promise that you will not need to be a cloth expert to appreciate the quality of all-wool serge that we have put into these suits. As for the style! Well, they're P. B.'s best.

revent the corruption of the legislatures, ompel candidates for the Senate to be ubjected to the severe scrutiny of a campaign before the people and compel the selection of the best fitted men. Further, he said, it would popularize government and tend to increase the nfidence of the people in the Senate, which has been to some extent impaired in recent years." It also would prevent deadlocks, he continued, due to political ontests in which various states from ime to time had been left unrepresented.

Demand Is Widespread.

"I cannot believe," said Senator Owen, that the Senate is conscious of the widesenators by direct vote of the people. I therefore submit evidence of action taken the various states, showing that hirty-six of them have expressed themelves, in one form or another, favorably
